ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[ ] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[ ] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[ ] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 33 year old United States citizen born in the Bronx, New York. He had frequent contact with a brother and a sister who live in the Houston, Texas area. His mother lives in Houston and is a Jamaican citizen. He reports having last lived with his girlfriend, with whom he has a son, in Houston. He visited Jamaica in 2007. He alleges that the Houston Police Department has his passport. His last employment was in 2008.
2. Defendant's extensive criminal history includes felony convictions for aggravated robbery, possession of an unlicensed firearm and altering the identification marks, forgery of a financial instrument, burglary of a building. He has numerous misdemeanor convictions, including multiple convictions for driving with a suspended license, theft, and possession of marijuana. At the time of arrest he was on bond on state charges of tampering or fabricating evidence that are unrelated to the instant offense.
3. Defendant is charged with bank fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344. He faces a potential penalty of up to 30 years in prison. Defendant has no financial or employment ties to the community. He admits frequent marijuana use and history of using ecstasy and abusing prescription narcotics. Combined with his criminal history, this renders him a flight risk and a danger to the community.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
